Dear Mr. Patterson:

STAT In response to a letter from Mr. William J. We appreciate the opportunity to nominate our employees for testimonial certificates and shall be pleased to inform you when FGAA members plan to retire from this Agency. At the present time we do not have any FGAA members employed by this Agency who are contemplating retirement within the near future.

Very truly yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Finance

Bob:

Attached is the letter dated 15 February 1968 from the Federal Government Accountants Association of Washington asking us to advise the Association of employees of the Agency who are members of their organization and who have retired within the past year or who are approaching retirement. The Association wishes to present such members with a testimonial certificate. The letter does not seem to call for a reply * unless we have nominees for the certificate.

As we discussed over the telephone, a retiring member of the Association who is under cover might create a problem.

I have advised Mr. Bannerman that you are attempting to obtain a list of all Agency officers who are members of the Association and will flag their records for this consideration when they retire.

*You may want to reply anyway. V.T.
